STUDENT INFORMATION:

STUDENT ID _____ PHONE # _____

The U.S. Department of Education has indicated that you have had an unusual enrollment history. An unusual enrollment history is defined by having attended and received Federal Pell Grant funds or Federal Direct Loan funds from multiple institutions. Your eligibility for financial aid cannot be determined until you submit this form and all required documentation.

This is an appeal process and there are no guarantees of an approval. Appeals submitted without all required documents will be considered incomplete and will not be processed. This appeal process is separate from the Satisfactory Academic Progress appeal and will not satisfy both requirements.

The Unusual Enrollment History Appeal for the 2019-2020 academic year must include all institutions you attended during the 2015-2016, 2016-2017, 2017-2018, and 2018-2019 aid years.

INSTRUCTIONS:

Please complete the following steps. Your application for financial aid will not be considered until you have submitted this completed form and all required documentation.

Step 1: Print your Federal Financial Aid History

You must log into the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) at www.nsls.ed.gov to obtain your Federal financial aid history (listing both grants and loans). You must print the "Financial Aid Review" page and attach it to this form.

Step 4: Statement Explaining Circumstance for Credit Not Earned

The U.S. Department of Education requires students flagged for their unusual enrollment histories to explain the circumstances contributing to any failures to earn academic credits while receiving federal student aid. If you failed to earn academic credit at any of the institutions you attended within the review period, you must provide a written statement explaining the situation resulting in credits not earned. You must specifically explain each institution and semester/quarter in which credit was not earned.

Step 5: Supporting Documentation

You must provide documentation to support the circumstance(s) in your appeal. Circumstances are generally limited to the reasons below. Appeals submitted without documentation will be considered incomplete and will not be processed.
